DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-16, drawn to a method and apparatus for steering a vehicle, classified in class 180, subclass 402.
 - II. Claims 17-28, drawn to a steering device for a vehicle, classified in class 180, subclass 402.
 - III. Claims 29-41, drawn to a method of alerting a driver, classified in class 340, subclass 440.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II, and III are directed to related products and processes. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are mutually exclusive, are not obvious variants, and have different modes of operation.
3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election of Species

4. Claims 1, 15, 17, 29 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: the species where the dynamic variable is a yaw rate, the species where the dynamic variable is a transverse acceleration, the species where the dynamic variable is the steering angle of the vehicle, and the species where the dynamic variable is a nominal steering angle of a steering wheel. The species are independent or distinct because they are not obvious variants of one another.

5. Claims 1, 15, 17, 29 are also generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct subspecies: the species where the driving situation is indicated by operating the propulsion device, the species where the driving situation is indicated by operating a braking device, the species where the driving situation is indicated by an optical device, the species where the driving situation is indicated by an audible device, and the species where the driving situation is indicated by a tactile device. The species are independent or distinct because they are not obvious variants of one another.

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, and subspecies even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kevin Hurley whose telephone number is 571-272-6646. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 9:30-5:00.
